

A WORD FROM OUR 2018 CONVENTION CHAIRMAN

We hope you will join us at the 46th Annual KACE Convention from August 21-24, 2018, leading off with a golf tournament and afternoon pre-conference education sessions on August 21 at the Tallgrass Country Club Golf Course in Wichita, Kansas.

Our theme this year is: "Superheroes Start with KACE." The KACE Education Committee has planned an interesting and instructional slate of continuing education sessions that will provide both resident care and administrative credits. The KACE Convention Committee has arranged for a number of fun networking opportunities and the Vendor Trade Show will showcase representatives from a variety of businesses providing products and services to the adult care field.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as the KACE Convention Chairperson. I look forward to seeing you in August!

Haely Ordoyne, KACE Convention Chairperson

HOTEL INFORMATION: Wichita Marriott ■ 9100 Corporate Hills Drive ■ Wichita, KS 67207 ■ Phone: 316.651.0333. A block of rooms will be held until July 30, 2018. When making reservations, identify yourself with KACE to receive the rate of $107.00 plus tax. [NOTE: Kellogg Avenue at Webb Rd. is under construction, so you may want to find an alternative route or allow extra time to arrive at the hotel.]

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT: A total of 22.0 continuing education clock hours are approved for this event and the optional pre-session for adult care home administrators and registered operators by the Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (LTS# A1427). This includes 18.0 hours in the core area of Administration (3.0 of which are concurrent sessions with nursing facility or assisted living emphasis), and 4.0 hours in the core area of Resident Care. An additional 5.0 hours of Electives are available if the entire convention is attended.

CONVENTION ATTIRE: Convention attire is business casual. The temperature in the convention facility can fluctuate so participants are encouraged to dress in layers.

HANDOUTS: KACE is transitioning to a greener approach to Convention handouts. All registrants will receive an electronic copy of the educational session handouts prior to Convention. However, when you register, you will have the opportunity to opt-out of receiving printed handouts. If you do not choose to opt-out, you will receive a printed copy at the Convention as in previous years.

Photographs taken at the event may be used in marketing materials and on the KACE website. If you do not wish for your photograph to be used, please contact KACE prior to the Convention.

For more information about the educational sessions and speakers, please visit www.kaceks.org or contact the KACE office at 785.273.4393.

KANSAS ADULT CARE EXECUTIVES

SPEAKERS:

Mea Austin

Ms. Austin is a motivational speaker and life coach known for her high energy level, humor, and ability to captivate and inspire audiences. She provides simple tools and concise direction to create positive change. She is an authorized licensee of the Culture Index™, and is certified as an Executive Coach and Time Management Expert and is a National Speakers Association member. She is also a group fitness instructor and enjoys inspiring others to follow healthy lifestyles. She studied business at Washburn University in Topeka, Kansas, and is a degreed Paralegal.

Bob Dick

Mr. Dick is a Director with Bland & Associates and works closely with businesses to develop business strategies and improve operations. He also prepares business valuations to help individuals understand the value of their business. He pursued a career in Accounting and earned his BS in Accounting and Finance from Kansas State University. Prior to joining Bland & Associates, he spent 22 years as a Principal at another CPA firm in Omaha, Nebraska. He is a Certified Valuation Analyst as well as a Certified Public Accountant.

Linda Farrar

Ms. Farrar is an RN and a Licensed Nursing Home Administrator in Kansas. She obtained her BS in Nursing degree from the University of Iowa in Iowa City, Iowa. She has held many positions in long-term care. In 2011, she retired from the full-time duties of administration and has continued to provide nursing and administrative consulting services. She is a certified Dementia Capable Care trainer and a certified INTERACT trainer.

Brad Fischer

Mr. Fischer is a Commissioner in the Survey, Certification and Credentialing Commission of KDADS. The primary function of the Commission is to protect public health through the licensure and inspections of adult care homes as defined by K.S.A. 39-923. The Commission develops and enforces state regulations related to adult care homes, as well as implements federal certification activities for Medicaid- or Medicare-certified nursing homes. Field staff in regional offices across the state conduct annual, unscheduled inspections of adult care homes on a rotation basis as well as unannounced inspections in response to consumer or provider-reported complaints received by the Commission's Adult Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation hotline.

Sarah Green

Ms. Green is an independent writer and consultant. She has written stories for local, state, and national newspapers and magazines about food, water, government, and health policy. She manages projects for philanthropic foundations, non-profit organizations, and community groups, all with a focus on bringing people together to learn from each other. She has worked in the public, private, and non-profit sectors in cities and small rural communities.

Dave Halferty

Mr. Halferty is Senior Manager with Myers and Stauffer Certified Public Accountants, LC, which provides health care consulting services exclusively to government entities. He oversees the Kansas nursing facility rate-setting work that Myers and Stauffer performs. Prior to joining Myers & Stauffer, he worked for the Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (and its predecessor KDOA) and worked with the nursing facility reimbursement program throughout that term.

Joan Hudson

Ms. Hudson is a board certified registered nurse and licensed nursing home administrator with roots in long-term care and assisted living. She has worked in housekeeping, dietary, CNA, and nursing roles including Director of Nursing, then finally as an administrator until accepting her current role as a compliance nurse for a 150-bed assisted living campus in Topeka. She has played a key role in helping this community achieve a zero deficiency annual survey in 2018. She enjoys sharing her gained knowledge and experience to help others grow in the senior care field.

Martha Kelso

Ms. Kelso is Chief Executive Officer for Wound Care Plus, LLC. As a visionary and entrepreneur in the field of mobile medicine, she has operated mobile wound care practices nationwide for many years. In her early career, she was a wound care nurse in long-term care and this past experience has committed her to educate other fellow wound care nurses on regulations and national standards of wound healing thereby empowering the bedside nurse with tools and knowledge. She is also a published author of many books pertaining to wound care.

SPEAKERS:

Dr. Rajeev Kumar

Dr. Kumar is one of the world's foremost experts on movement disorders with unparalleled expertise treating and researching Parkinson's Disease, Huntington's Disease, Dystonia, and many other debilitating movement disorders. Trained at the renowned Mayo Clinic, Dr. Kumar has two decades of experience working in the fields of neurology and movement disorders and as Medical Director of the Rocky Mountain Movement Disorders Center and director of the Huntington's Disease Center of Excellence at the Colorado Neurological Institute where he has solidified his status as one of the most trusted and respected professionals in the field.

Clint Maun

Mr. Maun is President and Senior Partner of Maun-Lemke Speaking & Consulting, LLC. He has over 38 years' experience in healthcare operations, management, revenue enhancement, leadership, quality improvement, turnover reduction, employee retention and self-development programs. Since 1984, he has concentrated on "changing the results of healthcare" and improving the "people business" of our profession. He consults and speaks on a diverse range of critical challenges facing healthcare, from revenue and marketing strategies to service excellence as well as optimizing organizational effectiveness with programs targeted to the 3 Cs of healthcare: Customers, Coworkers, and Collaboration.

Kailey Riskowski

Ms. Riskowski is a CPA and certified healthcare financial professional currently with Bland & Associates. Bland & Associates serves as a contractor for the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services and assists with examinations, compliance, monitoring and project oversight for a number of different Medicare programs. Ms. Riskowski served as the lead accountant on many of those engagements. More recently, she has focused her efforts at the provider level serving a large number of senior living clients in the midwest. Her involvement includes overseeing financial statement engagements and Medicaid and Medicare cost report preparation, as well as providing consulting services.

Linda Shell

Linda Shell, RN, BS, MA is a Registered Nurse having practiced within the long-term care, hospital, and academic arenas. Ms. Shell has been the Director of Nursing and the Director of Education and Learning for Volunteers of America (VOA.) VOA provides care to seniors in their homes, assisted living centers, adult day care programs, and skilled nursing facilities. Ms. Shell's role within the VOA organization involves coaching, teaching, collaboration, advocacy, quality improvement, and research. She has a masters in Nursing Leadership and serves as adjunct faculty at Bethel University in the RN and BSN programs. Ms. Shell is also a partner in LMS consulting, which provides leadership coaching and development to business professionals.

Jake & Nick Strecker

Jake Strecker is Senior Vice President and Nick Strecker is CTO and co-Founder of INAalert, Inc. After starting a mass text messaging software, Nick quickly noticed a need in healthcare for security and surveillance and developed INAalert, Inc., an IT company building web-based software applications, or more specifically "Instant Notification Applications" produced to increase productivity while reducing stress in its users' professional lives. INA's objective is to produce and deploy technologies improving people's jobs and workplace productivity. Both graduated from the University of Kansas.

Judy Wineland

Ms. Wineland has worked in several nursing homes involved in Culture Change programs focused on giving the best of care. She worked with community emergency groups in McPherson where the Local Emergency Preparedness Committee (LPEC) was very active in restructuring their county governmental resources and businesses in the community to the government recommended Emergency Preparedness format that uses Incident Command protocols. When Ms. Wineland moved to Wesley Towers in Hutchinson, the Reno County LEPC Committee restructured their Emergency Policy to mirror the government format. Judy and her team workers were able to clearly define needs and communication protocols to enable assistance from local agencies and other community providers in this process.
