The Tanner-Foster Educational Foundation is pleased to sponsor the Bob Bethell Scholarship. One deserving student may be awarded full tuition to the KACE Administrator-in-Training Program each year. The scholarship will be awarded based on need as well as merit. To apply for the Bob Bethell Scholarship, candidates must meet the following criteria:

- Work in an adult care facility administered by a KACE member.
- Obtain a sponsorship from a current KACE member (each KACE member will be limited to one Bob Bethell Scholarship sponsorship per year.)
- Submit an essay explaining why the candidate would not be able to participate in the AIT Program without the assistance of the Bob Bethell Scholarship.
- Complete the program within one year. (Otherwise the sponsoring KACE member will be asked to wait two years before sponsoring another candidate.)

This scholarship is intended to honor the hard work and advocacy of the late Bob Bethell, a nursing home administrator and Kansas State Representative from Alden, Kansas.

Scholarship applications should be sent to the Kansas Adult Care Executives Association (KACE) office and must be received or postmarked by June 30, 2018. (KACE, 1505 SW Fairlawn, Suite B, Topeka, KS 66604 OR executivedirector@kaceks.org)
